ORDER

AND NOW, this 23rd day of April, 2015, upon consideration of the Statement of the United States Trustee (Docket No. 34 in No. 14-1484), submitted in response to the Court's Order that parties in interest submit their views on how the above-captioned matters should proceed, including whether they should be dismissed (Docket No. 33 in No. 14-1484), IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, for the reasons stated in a memorandum of law bearing today's date, these cases are DISMISSED with PREJUDICE and that petitions may not be refiled in any other court unless and until the Pennsylvania Debtors¹ obtain approval and authority from this Court and, in the event that the

Pennsylvania Debtors do file, the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(4) is ineffective until this Court rules otherwise.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Koresko & Associates, P.C., Koresko Law Firm, Penn Public Trust, and Penn-Mont Benefit Services, Inc., are each liable to the U.S. Trustee for $325.00. If the U.S. Trustee believes that the debtors are required to pay more, it must file a brief to the Court explaining with sufficient specificity why any higher fees are mandatory.
